Motivation for serving on the Board
I felt compelled to address a matter of great significance - to the health & well-being of horses and their position in Europe. In recent years there has been an increased awareness and concern about transport suffering. Transportation is a big challenge. The lack of standardized guidelines across Europe. It's important to work together and strengthen regulations, improve transportation conditions. Handling & transport - Papers at borders can be optimized to create the best for the horses.
